The children's department, Chapel Hill Mission Team, and GISD would like to invite you to come out on Saturday, December 2nd from 3-6pm to the Christmas Market. Our mission team will be selling our famous Gifts in a Jar (the Winter Bean Soup) with proceeds going to the mission trip. We have 54 jars only and once they are sold, they are gone! The children will be hosting a craft booth with wooden crafts for sale and activities for the children. There will be food, crafts, handmade items for sale and activities for everyone. Please come out and support us!

We Are... Hope

It's no secret that most churches in our society are suffering from a decline in both participation and membership. We believe that identity crisis may be at the root of this issue. How are we supposed to convince others to walk up to our door if we don't know what we can provide for them when they enter? That's why we as a church have been studying how a large part of our identity can be found in providing help, hope, and home to those around us.

As we discussed last week, many people come to the church seeking help. There are far too many people around us aimlessly wandering through life, searching for some sort of purpose in the middle of their hardships and strife. However, God promises us hope for a brighter future in both this life and the next. Join us this week as we study how we can embrace this fact as a part of our identity and share it with those around us.

See you there!
