Amigos Days

Do you have the heart of a missionary but no mission project? Can't go to Jamaica, haven't been offered a shorter more convenient way to be the hands of God?

Your hardworking Outreach team has learned that Amigos Days needs a few good men and women! Amigos Days is a Methodist mission that Chapel Hill has participated in for many years, but not in recent years. In the past we have had a house of our own to work on, this year, we're just looking for a handful of willing souls to beef up a team that another church is sending, or to bat clean up, (really to bat, 'finish up the painting' very important!)

If you can see yourself being a part of the solution in this way, please tell Judy or Kelly as soon as you can. You don't have to commit to all of the dates, but you will have to complete a lead paint safety training on-line.

THIS IS THE LAST WEEKEND TO SIGN UP!

Dates are: April 28th and 29th.

New Sermon Series:

Bad Girls of the Bible

Starting: 4/23/2017

Bad Girls of the Bible: Delilah

Sometimes we assign labels to people based solely on our expectations or pre-conceived notions. Many times, we label people as 'bad' based on our own fears, or our own notions of what is bad or good. However, occasionally we label people as 'bad', not meaning the opposite of good. Many times I have heard myself saying, "That Dak Prescott is a bad quarterback, especially for a rookie". That does not mean Dak is lousy, but rather that Dak is really good.

There are many women in the Bible who have traditionally been labeled as bad. But perhaps they could be considered as good. In this sermon series, we will take a look at several of these 'bad girls'. We will seek to see if they have perhaps been mislabeled, and more importantly, what good lessons we might learn for our own faith journeys, from these 'Bad Girls of the Bible'.

Last week, we took a look at the story that Eve gives to us in the book of Genesis. Eve has always been labeled as a Bad Girl, but we found from her story that knowing God helps us as we go through our lives helps us to not be fooled into doing what we shouldn't and that if we make a mistake, we shouldn't blame others. Eve was able to help us with her story. What will we learn this Sunday from Delilah?

Join us and see!

5th Sunday Breakfast

Our 5th Sunday breakfast is this Sunday morning. Be sure to join us as we eat a delicious breakfast from the United Methodist Men and hear from Dr. Rev. Wes Magruder about Immigration and what we can do to help our neighbors. Come find out more during the Sunday School hour this Sunday and invite others to join us!

Prayer Garden

We have received some calls regarding a new fountain for the Prayer Garden, so Cindy, Jim and Nancy are out looking and gathering cost information and pictures. We should have more information for those who are interested, or would like to share the cost with someone, in a few weeks.

Stay tuned for more details and thanks for your interest and consideration.

It's Baseball Time Again

Family Life has reserved 30 tickets for the Rough Rider game at 7:05 on Saturday, May 20th. The tickets cost $20.00 each and they include the all-you-can-eat food and soft drink package. Gather family and friends and add your names to the signup sheet in the hallway. Signup closes on Sunday, May 14th. If we need more tickets, we can certainly get them.

Save the Date

What – UMW Spring Luncheon
Where – Chapel Hill Fellowship Hall
When – Sat., May 6th, 2017 at 11:00 AM

Tickets are now on sale for the UMW Spring Luncheon with Sarah Boones' review of The Mockingbird Next Door, Life with Harper Lee by Marj Mills. This gives us an interesting perspective of the life of Harper Lee and her early book, To Kill a Mockingbird. A later book and recent best seller Go Set a Watchman, coincided with the death of Ms. Lee, however, she will be remembered for these two very distinct novels.

The luncheon worker bees are busy putting together festive looking tables accented with spring flowers and bird houses. Where else can you get gourmet salads, a great book review, and fellowship with your sisters in Christ all for $15? (We spend more than that to get our nails done!) So, save this date on your calendar and purchase your ticket or fill up a table. You do not want to miss this event girls!
