

Teachers Luncheon at Chapel Hill Preparatory May 6th

Coming up quick as a wink, it's time to show our love, appreciation and support for the teachers at Chapel Hill Prep with our annual salad luncheon.

We delivered lunch to them, and every year they tell us it is something they particularly look forward to with joyful anticipation. (We're speaking their love language!)

Sign up today in the narthex, please bring a salad or two salads and volunteer on Monday if you possibly can. Grateful for any help you give!

This year the Teachers Appreciation Luncheon falls on the Monday following the UMW Luncheon, you could bring extra salad then, or Sunday when you come to church, or Monday as you join us at CHP! Salads left in the fridge must be labeled 'TEACHERS' and safely able to sit out for a few hours. Jello melts, so we ask that the jello salads go to the UMW event only.

Thank you for the years of supporting our community teachers! -Your Outreach team

Communion Offering 5/5/19: Food for the 60th Anniversary!

Chapel Hill Members, a change has come upon us!

No, we haven't been moved by the Spirit, rather, we've been moved by Code Compliance! Your 60th Anniversary Planning Committee had envisioned a mighty Pot Luck to add to the burgers, brats and dogs the men of Christ Plano have graciously agreed to grill up for us.

No, no, no!!

It turns out that if we are going to feed the public, we have to follow strict guidelines. Among them, no home-made anything. Everything has to be individually wrapped or packaged, or prepared by a licensed caterer and handled precisely. No opportunity for contamination may be allowed.

Needless to say, this will be adding a few simoleons to our budgetary projections. So, I ask you. If you were going to spend good money on the fine pot luck foods you were going to bring to this celebration... and were planning to drop a few bills into the Communion Offering plate this weekend... Would you be willing to add up those dollars and bring them this Sunday, May 5th?!

'Food for the 60th' has become our recipient for this week's Communion Offering.

We will still have an awesome celebration and moving fellowship, but will limit our food options a bit for the sake of public safety and trust.

Please keep on inviting, that's the most important 'action item' just now.

Thanks!!
