

Say Hello to Co-Office Manager
Courtney Lubbers!

Courtney was born and raised in Plano and has spent almost her entire life in the North Dallas area. She attended Abilene Christian University, where she attained a BS in Social Studies for Teachers, along with four minors. She recently completed a Master's in Global History from the University of Sheffield, UK. Courtney also currently works as a history teacher at the June Shelton School of Dallas, which comes with the benefit of being able to work as a church office manager during the summer. Courtney enjoys organization, tea, and reading.

Courtney will be office manager on Thursdays and Fridays over the summer.

We're back! And this one is going to be EASY!

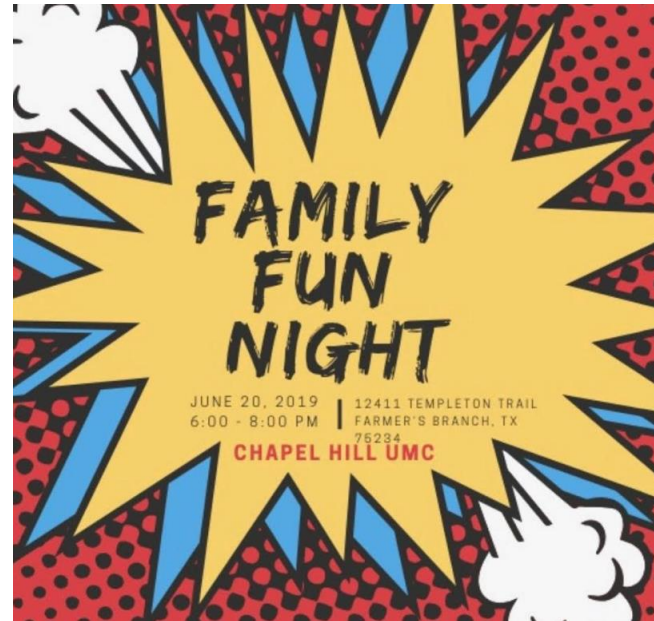

PT has requested recyclable paper and cardboard items, such as:

- Paper towel and toilet paper cores

- Newspapers and (can you believe it?) old magazines (with pretty pictures!)

Bring them to the big collection box in the hall please! They will be using them on the first week in July.

Meeting Rev. JD Allen

Here is this week's excerpt from Rev. JD Allen's biography.

The last five years in Boyd I walked with the church through the Small Church Initiative revitalization effort, endeavored to launch new small groups to get more people involved in intentional faith development, and have been working to establish New Spaces for New Faces as we sought to reconnect with our community. I also co-founded the Wise County Community Coalition where we seek to bring people together across racial, economic, social and political lines to serve our neighbors and raise awareness around current issues and local needs.

My family and I are excited to walk alongside the people of Chapel Hill United Methodist Church in your service to the community and your effort to reach new people groups and spread the good news of God's love and the compassion and justice of Beloved Community found in the Reign of God.

Thank You Love Offering

As is our tradition at Chapel Hill, when a staff member leaves, we send them off with a Thank You love offering. Please give your offering to Carl by June 28th.

Thanks, from SPRC
