Ruth was born in Cheyenne, Oklahoma, and lives in Farmer's Branch. She has been a member of Chapel Hill since 1975. She came here with her husband, John Fuls, and their three children. They visited several Methodist churches before selecting CHUMC. David Shawver was the minister, and the people were very friendly which influenced their decision. She has taught Sunday School in the past and worked on many children's activities, like the Christmas Workshop, VBS and fundraisers. She presently attends Class Menagerie.

She has been married to John Fuls for 62 years. Their children, Debra, Gary and Steve, were active in our children and youth programs. They have 5 grandchildren.

Ruth was a hairdresser and a banker before retiring. She serves as a counter on Sunday morning, is a member of Family Life and has also ushered when needed. She is active in her community volunteering at The Branch Connection and serves on their Senior Advisory Board. She was a troop leader for the Girl Scouts and a den mother for the Boy Scouts. She enjoys working on crossword puzzles, Wonderword, jigsaw puzzles, reading, and playing volleyball.

As you can see, we are fortunate that she joined our church family at Chapel Hill. She usually sits at the back of the church, so stop by her pew and tell her thank you for her service as a disciple for Christ.
