In March, we worked from a brainstormed list of values from our Advance meeting in February and sought to pare them down to three or four foundational values that define the heart of our local church. The values your council arrived at were:

In our Church Council meetings in 2022, we are undergoing a process of discernment as we seek where God is leading as we emerge from the pandemic of the last two years. This process will help inform how we make disciples for the transformation of the world. How we re-engage one another and our community as we live out and share God's love.

- Nurturing our members
- Outreach to the community
- Accepting others
- Meaningful worship

These values will help inform us as we craft how we come together and plan to share the love of God in the coming days and years. Whether we do things Chapel Hill did in the past or enact new initiatives, these foundational values will give us a strong foundation on which to build the future God gives us.

Grace and peace,

Rev. J.D. Allen

Laity Meeting with the Bishop

The laity meeting with the bishop we have been discussing in recent weeks is this coming Saturday at 9:30 am at Grace Avenue United Methodist Church in Frisco. This is a meeting which will provide valuable information and discussion in light of the postponement of General Conference until 2024 and the pending May 1st launch of the Global Methodist Church.

Please pre-register using this link:

Communion Sunday is UMCOR Sunday

Next Sunday's Communion Sunday offering is in celebration of UMCOR Sunday. This offering supports the United Methodist Committee on Relief that serves as our United Methodist boots on the ground when disasters like tornados and wildfires strike. UMCOR does not receive any funding from our local church apportionments which are paid to the United Methodist connection to support mission and ministry, so please plan to give to support this important ministry.

Food Donations for PT Family Fun Night: April 28 at 6 pm

The 2021-2022 Project Transformation After School program ends with Family Fun Night Thursday at 6 pm. The PT team is needing food donations to help with the meal for about 50 people on Thursday. Please sign up using the sign-up sheet on the green table in the narthex. Food will need to be delivered by Thursday morning, but the church office will likely be closed Tuesday afternoon and all day Wednesday due to J.D. being at a conference this week.
