CHUMC Family,

At the end of last year, we posed the question to you: where do you see God at work?

Well, after we received responses from you, three things stood out: 1) the talented new staff on board at CHUMC, 2) our small, but vibrant group of children and youth, who bring so much energy and talent, and 3) our talented worship leaders.

Those first two areas go together in some ways. Our youth and children, combined with the arrival of Kate Whitaker, our new minister to families, truly provide some hopeful energy for us in 2023.

The first and third items also go together. We have completed our first full year with Melissa Sky-Eagle, leading in the choir and leading worship and have, lately, been able to experience Adam Hull leading us in our monthly modern worship. These two, combined with our talented choir and liturgists, help provide us with high-quality worship each week.

These are just some of the ways you have seen God at work at CHUMC and we trust that will be plenty more as we seek to fulfill our mission and live out our values together in 2023. Please join us in prayer as we seek a faithful and fruitful year together.

Grace and peace,
Rev. J.D. Allen
