Pastor's Message

CHUMC Family,

I look forward to returning from vacation soon and joining CHUMC once again in worship and ministry. With that in mind, we will be continuing through Season After Pentecost. This is a season that focuses on our discipleship in mission with God sharing the good news of God's love, presence, and salvation with those around us. In July, we will begin a series of series called The Path of the Disciple.

During Path of the Disciple, we will consider the significance of the call to follow Christ. Jesus called on his disciples to, "Follow me," more often than he called on them to, "Believe in me." Jesus also never undersold what it means to follow as if it was a cursory or easy thing to do. But it is something we can and will do by God's grace. The three series that make up The Path of the Disciple are as follows:

- July 2 to July 9 - The Path of the Disciple: Learning to Grow
- July 16 to July 30 - The Path of the Disciple: Imagining a New Reality
- August 6 to August 27 - The Path of the Disciple: Searching for the Face of God

In Learning to Grow, we explore discipleship and moving on to perfection in love, or sanctification, as a lifelong journey. Whether we were baptized as a child into a local church and later confirmed or we entered the faith later in life, growth continues to define our lives as the grace of the Triune God always has something new to form within us so that love pours forth in more abundance. Whether in moments of fellowship, charity, or justice, discipleship can be difficult and takes effort, but we push on knowing our willingness to continued growth brings us close to God and are neighbors. The two-week series is as follows:

- July 2 - The Path of the Disciple: Learning to Grow: Quenching a Thirst
- July 9: The Path of the Disciple: Learning to Grow: Taking the Yoke

I look forward to beginning this journey with you this summer.

Grace and peace,
Rev. J.D. Allen
