CHUMC family,

Lent can be a pretty easy season to relate to in life. Life has its ups and downs and psychological research tells us that we naturally remember and are formed more by the downs than the ups in life. Those moments when we feel most flawed and vulnerable stay with us. Lent feels most natural.

However, as we journey through Holy Week with Easter on the horizon, Jesus offers us a pathway beyond the downs: the flaws, the vulnerability, the deaths we experience in our lives. When we are at our lowest, we can trust that there is a resurrection story at the end of the path because God is with us in Christ through the Holy Spirit.

With that in mind we are going to focus on Resurrection Stories in our worship series during the Season of Easter. We will hear stories of people who experienced such resurrections in their lives and ruminate on where God may offer you and us a resurrection story in the here-and-now. I hope you can join us for the series.
