CHUMC family,

In a little more than a month, we will be in Abilene at the Unification Conference in which the Central Texas Conference, our North Texas Conference, and the Northwest Texas Conference will be merged as the Horizon Texas Conference. With the work of the South Central Jurisdiction complete, including approving the proposed unification, the merger is guaranteed. Now the soon to be unified conference needs to convene to enact recommendations set forth in Unification Plan which has been shared over the past year, address nominations for committees and other lay and clergy appointed roles, and establish the 2025 budget for the newly merged conference. You may still review the Unification Plan with recommendations here:

This new conference will officially launch on January 1, 2025. As you know, one of our strategic priorities in the new conference is to champion children and youth. We were able to see the fruit of this labor last Sunday when we fellowshiped together in the Children's and Youth Thank You Lunch. It was an absolute joy to hear from all our young disciples who were able to attend summer camp because of your spiritual and financial support. It is also encouraging to see how many of you have signed the Back-to-School Prayer Wall and committed to pray for all our students, teachers, and staff, this school year.

We are well-equipped for the future of CHUMC and the Horizon Texas Conference. Thank you for your commitment and discipleship.

Grace and peace,
Rev. J.D. Allen
