CHUMC Family,

Ever since the creation of the world, God's invisible qualities—God's eternal power and divine nature—have been clearly seen, because they are understood through the things God has made. —Romans 1:20

Imagine. God's eternal power and divine nature are understood through the things God has made. Sometimes we try so hard to see and experience God. Sometimes God may be simply saying, "Open your eyes."

In Farmers Branch, The City in a Park, we may not be in the wild, but there are opportunities to encounter God's eternal power and divine nature. The babbling water of a creek. The ducks congregating around a pond. The squirrels running through the trees. The wind blowing through the trees. Revelations of God are all around us.

They are all around us in every person we see. Those beautiful, God image bearing people all around us in different varieties. They reveal God to us.

Do we want to see and experience God? Let us open our eyes.

Grace and peace,
Rev. J.D. Allen
